QUIE TO DELIVER COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Rep. Albert Quie of Minnesota will address the 124 seniors and 37 graduate students at the College's 110th commencement exercises on Monday, May 20, at the National Shrine. Quie is ranking Republican member of the House Education and Labor Committee and has played a major role in shaping education legislation in recent years.

Congressman Quie, who is a member of the Gallaudet College Board of Directors, will be one of four honorary degree recipients. He will receive an honorary Doctor of Laws degree in recognition of his continuing interest in and support of educational assistance for the handicapped and post-secondary vocational education.

Also receiving honorary degrees will be Mervin Garretson, Robert Weitbrecht and Craig Mills.

Merv Garretson will be awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree in recognition of his distinguished work as an educator of the deaf. Prior to becoming principal of MSSD, he was associate professor of education at the College and clinical professor of secondary education.

Robert H. Weitbrecht, vice president in charge of research and development, Applied Communications Corporation of Belmont, California, will receive an honorary Doctor of Science degree in recognition of his extensive research and service to the deaf community as a physicist and electronic scientist.

Deaf since birth, Mr. Weitbrecht is one of the principal developers of the PHONETYPE, which made it economically feasible for deaf people to use telephone service in conjunction with teletypewriters.

Craig Mills, director, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, Florida Department of Health and Vocational Services, will be awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree in recognition of his more than 25 years of service and dedication to vocational rehabilitation counseling to deaf people.

VOLLEYBALL TEAM COMPETES IN NAIA FINALS

By taking first place in the Potomac Intercollegiate Conference tournament held at Gallaudet College on April 19, the men's volleyball team earned the right to represent PIC in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletic volleyball tournament in Downers Grove, Illinois.

Bob Jackson was named coach of the year by the Potomac Intercollegiate Conference, and three Gallaudet players were selected as all-conference members.

PRE-COLLEGE PROGRAMS TO HOST CAID BOARD

The Board of Directors of the Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf will be meeting on campus May 22-25. The meetings will take the form of a constitution revision workshop.

The meeting will be hosted by the Pre-College Programs with Bob Davila, as CAID president-elect, in charge of arrangements and Doin Hicks assisting.
